BITS AND PIECES

There is not much going on this month so there will be a short newsletter.

The field trial was on a very cold weekend and I know the committee was happy to get home. As expected, there was a loss due to less than anticipated entries. The expenses for the wrangler were up due to mostly travel expenses. Full details will be reported at the April Zoom meeting.

The meeting will be a Zoom meeting on Wednesday, April 20th at 7pm. Jeannie and I discussed the meeting and decided that since we cannot count on the weather in April for an outdoor gathering, the Zoom meeting would be the best alternative. We also feel this is a way that the members who live farther away can also participate. Darcy has set up this meeting and it is published below. There will also be a reminder.

Topic: ISCO April Zoom Meeting
Time: Apr 20, 2022 07:00 PM Eastern Time (US and Canada)

Meeting ID: 846 9732 6755
Passcode: 4gn5Ab

We hope you can join us!

I have updated the roster, and if there are any corrections that I missed, please let me know. The roster will be attached.

We have sent an ad to the ISCA National which the cost was shared by GTISC. There are no minutes or treasurer's report as there was not a March meeting.

Connie will be returning to Ohio in May, and I am sure she has been enjoying the SC weather.

Sorry this is so short, but the main thing I wanted to get out was the meeting notice.

PLEASE CHECK TO SEE IF YOU SENT YOUR ANNUAL AWARD PAYMENT AS WE ARE MISSING A FEW!

Jackie
