Bits and Pieces

I hope you all are doing well during these trying times. The world seems like the Twilight Zone, and we can only hope that things improve.

At this point, there has been no decision to cancel or plan the Summer Specialty as we have approximately six weeks before any decision needs to be made without a financial loss. LCKC is proceeding with the same thoughts as the Ohio State Fair, as well as the Lorain County Fair, are still scheduled as of this date. We will update you of any decisions as soon as we see what happens in June. The board will be contacted first.

Our sympathy is extended to George and Monica Wilson who recently lost George's mom. It is a sad time to have any sort of gathering or funeral.

I think you all are aware of Shirley Boyer's passing on April 4th. Her obituary can be found at the Jenkin's Funeral Home website: <http://www.jenkinsfuneralchapel.com/memorials>. Shirley was a long time member.

There is not much going on at this time so this will be a pretty boring newsletter. The 2020 roster is attached. Thanks Connie!

Stay Safe!

Jackie

THERE WILL BE NO MEETING IN MAY! UPDATES ON MEETINGS AND SPECIALTY AS WE KNOW WHAT EACH SITUATION BRINGS.
