Bits and Pieces

I hope you all had a nice 4th of July! The weather was nice for outdoor picnics !

Our specialty is fast approaching and we have received no trophy donations at this time, If you plan on donating, please fill out the form and send it in as well as anyone who would like to place an ad in the catalog.

Our next meeting will be a Zoom meeting and will be on Thursday, July 21st at 7pm. I will have to arrange with Darcy to set that up.

Tom and Barb Johnstone sold their home recently and Ron and I went to Sunbury as she donated many Irish Setter items that were very nice from her collection of many years. I will send some pictures to Mickey to see what she wants to use for this year as we can cut back on the cost of the raffle, If anyone has anything to donate to the raffle, please let Mickey know soon, She also sent some crates and exercise panels which we took to Sue for rescue. While in Sunbury, Barb sent me to her friend Joan's as she had a nice grooming table and some grooming supplies for me as they no longer have Irish Setters. I really lucked out as when I went to groom my dogs a couple of weeks ago, Ron had taken it to LCKC for their conformation classes and of course never brought it back. The one I got from Joan was much nicer than mine! Thanks again Barb and Tom who will be living in their RV with other folks they know at a RV campground until they return to TX with their daughter. We wish you the best of luck and no more cutting that huge yard.

Paul Spohn underwent surgery and is doing well. He only spent one night in the hospital as a precaution. Stay well Paul!

I hope everyone can join us for the Zoom meeting as I know it seems to be better attended than the Physical ones. See you there!

Jackie
