Bits and Pieces

Well, the Specialty weekend is almost upon us! I believe we have about 53 dogs, which certainly is not like the old days”, but is about what other Irish Setter Clubs have, and some even less.

I have only had a few trophy donations, but there is still time. If you email it to me and drop a check in the mail, I can get it in the catalog if I have it early Friday morning. The same goes for the patron’s Page and Rainbow Bridge at only $1.00 per line. Unfortunately our entries are down but the expenses are not. It is a good thing that we are having Fall Agility Trials, which are far more a financial success and much less work!

As in the past, Mary and Larry will be hosting the Hospitality, and if possible, bring a dish to share. LCKC will furnish the cake, but any side dish would be a great help.

The national is over, and as I mentioned before, the finances will not be final until November. We have to settle with ISCA. Below is a great picture of the ISCA and ISCO Rescue Parade. There are a few of our club members and locals too! It was such a nice event!

Some of our club members also had a very nice win at the National, but I will let them brag first.

Thanks to Sue Musil for chairing the Irish Festival and to all those who participated!

Hope to see you in August! Jackie

THERE WILL BE A WRAP UP MEETING FOR THE NATIONAL EVENTS ON FRIDAY FOLLOWING THE COMPLETION OF JUDGING. PLEASE TRY TO COME! IT WILL BE UNDER THE IRISH SETTER TENT.

Please find enclosed my donation to the 2018 ISCO Specialty trophy fund.
